TO THE EDITOR OF THE " DAILY PRESS." Sir,-May I, through the medium of your columns, call the attention of the proper author rities to an evil (I might call it a most barefaced) swindle or robbary) now prevailing in this colony in the shape of fixing composition deeds. In the Court of Bankruptcy, honest merchants and dealers who have failed in business through their misfortunes have to present their account books to their creditors before they can be discharged, but young men without capital or means, receiving a palery salary of from $30 to $125, on which they can hardly maintain themselves, who employ their leisure hours in gambling, and consequently run into debt, find salvation in a composition deed. How do they do it? most interesting match. Stewart led off with I will venture to give an example: -Mr. A is in trouble; his debts, through gambling at eards and po-tae at Kowloon City, amount to $1,500. His creditors are pressing him, and his salary is only $100. If he pays $50 a month, it will take him thirty menths to clear off his debts. In this game Wallace made the unfortunate and the $50 remaining out of his salary is hardly enough for his gambling, to say nothing of his expenses. He goes to three of his friends, and] asks them to allow their names to be put down Martial law is proclaimed. in the deed of composition as creditors for the funtastic amounts of $1,000, $1,500, and $2,000 respectively, increasing thus his liabilities to $6,000, and they sign the deed, in which the debtor proposes to pay 350 out of his salary monthly for distribution amongst his creditors, so that out of this amount only $12.50 go to his legitimate creditors, and $37.50 to his friends. who return it to him. Now, Mr. Editor. should not steps be taken to bring these swindlers to justice? Should not a full ston be put to this atrocious fraud? Should not the hon, members of the Legislative Council give it their attention?-Enclosing my cord, I remain,

E. H. MELBEE. who shall bold office until the first annual meeting to be held in the year 1892. 6,-With a paid up Capital of $500,000, & reserve liability of $475,000, and a select body of sharsholders, this Company may reasonably hope from local Banks and financial institutions facilities that no individual dealer or firm could command, and affording, in turn, to these institutions, guarantees and securities they could not well obtain elsewhere.

7. Reasonably handsome dividends on the paid up capital may be secured by simply investing in, and holding, carefully selected local dividend-paying Stocks, purchased at the favourable moment. Trost Companies in England formed for the purpose of such investments have been almost uniformly successful. Had such a Company existed in Hongkong twenty years ago, the average return on investment made then would now be about 175 per cent, on the money originally, laid out, and the increase in value of the Stocks purchased would average about 140 per cent. New Companies are likely to be formed here from time to time for a variety of purposes, and there is no reason to suppose that investments made in their shares in the early stages of their history as dividend-paying Companies, may not, in the course of years, shew as handsome profits, and as vast increases in value as any known in the past. The Stocks and Shares of existing Companies afford also, on occasions, favourable opportunities for investment.

8.—It will form no portion of the this Company to float ne write shares, or invest the Stocks, Shares, and prisce indicated in par-9.-Profits, and cons believed, be made by the day to day of local Sta res of the description The value of Share ery great, so great the

There are few or no permanent investors in the Colony, and there are therefore great and frequent fluctuations in values. The ever changing nature of the population is constantly throwing shares and stocks upon the market, quite apart from the operations of speculative dealers, and thus very valuable opportunities are constantly being offered to buyers with capital at command. The Company will, it is hoped, not marely secure reasonable profits for its shareholders but will confer a benefit on the shareholding community generally by steadying "the local markets and ensuring thom against violent fluctuations.

10.-Considerable profits may also be anticipated from the employment of a portion of the Company's resources in " Cash and Time " doalinguin abares, identified by numbers or other wise, and deposited in the hands of the Company or with its Bankers.
